

RED DEVIL

North Cairn, St. Paul

DEDICATION

We, the senior class of 1957, dedicate this yearbook to our parents, teachers, and friends, with deep gratitude and appreciation for their untiring efforts in behalf of our education and the personal welfare of each member of the class.

THE CLASS OF '58 PRESENTS THE RED DEVIL

We, the senior class of '58, invite you --- parents, students, and teachers --- to reminisce with us through these next few pages our hopes, pleasures, and disappointments.

We hope that you will get as much pleasure from this yearbook as we have had in preparing it.

To the class of 1958:

I am particularly fond of your class because twelve years ago you entered the first grade at the same time that I came to Hillsboro as a school principal.

To leave, the French say, is to die a little. However, all things must come to an end. May success and happiness always be yours.

CLASS PROPHECY

One cold evening after dinner I was searching through my library for something to read, when I came upon my old school annual. I sat down in my easy chair and began reading it. It brought back a lot of wonderful memories; and as I reminisced, I fell into a deep slumber.

I dreamed I was in Hillsboro, which had grown quite large. My first stop was the city hall where the mayor, Kenneth Fox, and the town councilmen, Eddie Workman and Robert Birchfield, were in session. As I left the courthouse, I bumped into the Chief-of-Police, who was none other than David Kellison. He sure looked "snazzy" in that uniform. And incidentally, he is a "Mounted Policeman."

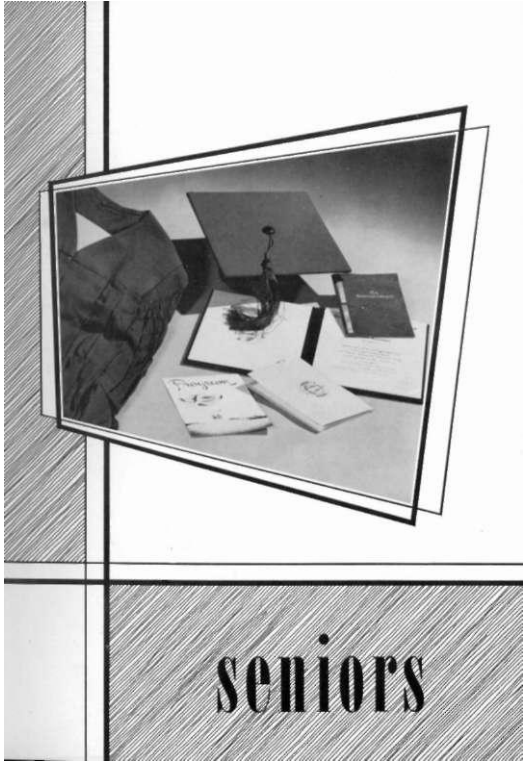

Moving up the street I entered Oscar's Restaurant, now being operated by Betty Oscar. Upon being seated, I recognized Edith Farmer at the next table, who was reading a copy of her own newspaper, "Farmer's Daily News." While talking to Edith she informed me that Dale Rudd and Daniel Hollandsworth were playing professional football.

As I was leaving the restaurant I saw two nurses coming down the street. As they drew closer I recognized Velma Morrison and Phyllis Kerns. They were on their way to the bank and persuaded me to join them. Upon entering the bank I saw Austin Morgan who informed me that he was treasurer, Marie Boggs was secretary and Phyllis Carpenter was president. While talking to Phyllis I learned that Linda McMillion was to be married that very afternoon; so I quickly caught a taxi and hurried to the church. Upon entering the church I heard Drusilla Jefferson singing "O Perfect Love." After the ceremony we all went to the bride's home for the reception, where I saw many of my old schoolmates. After extending best wishes to the newlyweds, I decided to take a walk in the park. While resting on a park bench a familiar looking young lady walked by, whom I recognized as Wenona Shue. While talking to her I discovered she had been married several years and had two darling children. I was informed by Wenona that Lucille Gurn and Norma Brock were both happily married; Lucille living in Florida and Norma in California. On my way back to the hotel I passed a garage, and discovered it was owned by Calvin Kershner.

Deciding I should visit the school, I ventured over and went into the cafeteria where I found Patsy Cook as Chief Dietician. Patsy told me that Harper Hill was coach and Carol White was now teaching English at Hillsboro High School. After leaving school I went to my hotel for dinner and then to bed.

Next morning I dressed and came down to breakfast. Upon entering the dining room I bought a newspaper. While waiting for my breakfast to be served, I glanced through the newspaper and saw that Evelyn Kellison was secretary to the President. Just then I saw the waitress coming with my breakfast, I felt a sudden chill come over me. I awoke to find that the fire had gone out in the fireplace and that I had been dreaming all along. I felt so very sad and homesick that I decided to go back to Hillsboro and visit all of my old schoolmates.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

CLASS HISTORY

Our class started its climb to the top in the fall of 1954, as they entered the halls of Hillsboro High School as Freshmen. To start us out on the right foot, we chose the following officers: President, David Kellison; Vice-President, Edith Farmer; Secretary, Shirley King; and Treasurer, Shirley Pritt. Our sponsor this year was Mrs. Pritchard.

During our initiation, each student dressed to represent a comic strip character, and it was not until after this that we really felt a part of high school.

During this year Carol White was chosen majorette, and Kenneth Fox and Joyce Weatherholt were members of the band. Carol White and Daniel Hollandsworth were crowned May Day King and Queen. Carol White was attendant to the Homecoming Queen.

In the fall of 1955 we entered the sophomore class feeling more a part of high school than ever. We chose for our leaders this year: President, Carol White; Vice-President, Kenneth Fox; Secretary, Shirley King; and Treasurer, Harper Hill. Mrs. Pritchard was our sponsor again this year.

We were glad that it was our turn to initiate the Freshmen. Other honors bestowed upon us this year were: varsity cheerleaders, Carol White and Joyce Weatherholt; Homecoming Queen, Velma Morrison, and band members, Joyce Weatherholt and Kenneth Fox.

We entered our third year at Hillsboro High as "Jolly Juniors". For our officers this year we elected: President, Kenneth Fox; Vice-President, Phyllis Carpenter; Secretary, Shirley King; and Treasurer, Austin Morgan. We welcomed as our new sponsor this year Miss Liggett. We were happy that we could now present a junior play. For our play we chose "Strictly Confidential". Harper Hill and Phyllis Carpenter were chosen to attend "Know Your State Government Day". Harper Hill was also chosen to attend Boys' State. Those juniors taken into the National Honor Society were: Carol White, Edith Farmer, Shirley Pritt, and Shirley King. Carol White and Joyce Weatherholt were chosen again as cheerleaders. The climax of our junior year was the arrival of our long-awaited class rings, which arrived November 12. Another privilege of ours this year was to act as host for the Junior - Senior Banquet and Prom, which for the first time was semi-formal.

We entered the halls of Hillsboro High School in the fall of 1957 for the last time. We chose for our officers this year: President, Phyllis Carpenter; Vice-President, Harper Hill; Secretary, Shirley Pritt; and Treasurer; Austin Morgan. Linda McMillion was attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Harper Hill was football captain, and Carol White and Phyllis Carpenter were chosen varsity cheerleaders.

As this yearbook goes to press, each of us is looking forward to the many pleasures ahead and hoping that all seniors will graduate in May.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-eight being of sound (?) mind and body, do hereby declare this as our last will and testament. Though our fortunes be small, we do bequeath the following.

I, Edith Farmer, will my ability to control my temper, while working on the yearbook to "Midge" Kramer.

I, Kenneth Fox, will my ability to get ready for a date on time to Charles Morgan.

Drusilla Jefferson wills to Barbara Lacy and Lillie Bolden her ability not to talk in Miss Given's study hall.

I, Phyllis Carpenter, will to the parents of the Juniors the worries of the parents of the Seniors.

Norma Brock wills to Helen Sparks a plastic heart so Austin Morgan won't break it.

I, Betty Oscar, will my bookkeeping book to Emma Pyles.

Shirley Pritt wills to Margaret Starks a can of gasoline to take with her while riding in a "Cadillac" just in case she has to walk home from the park.

I, Dale Rudd, will my ability to play football to Sam Arbogast.

I, Wenona Shue, will to Dixie Kershner my English workbook, I hope she will fill it out better than I did.

Carol White wills her position as cheerleader to Agnes Simmons.

I, Austin Morgan, will to Samuel Hickman a picture of Norma Brock.

I, Eddie Workman, will to Gerald Gladwell a boat so he can cross the Greenbrier River to save a much needed bridge.

We, Velma Morrison and Phyllis Kerns, will to Mrs. Farmer a yardstick so she won't have to borrow Mr. Moore's.

Robert Birchfield wills to Dale Rudd a stamp so he can write to Genia Barrier.

I, Linda McMillion, will to Ruth Ann Boggs my seat on the school bus.

Evelyn Kellison wills her seat on the bus to Plumia Hill.

I, Calvin Kershner, will to Joe Hollandsworth, a car so he can go see Beta Clutter.

David Kellison wills to Mary Spivey a chain so she can keep up with Richard Burns.

I, Patsy Cook, wills to Mr. Anderson a body of steadfast nerves to use while in drivers training, hoping that he won't have anyone as bad as I.

Lucille Gunn wills to Louise Hollandsworth her shorthand book, in hopes she will do better than she did.

I, Harper Hill, will to Agnes Simmons a chain so she can lead "Tank" around.

I, Daniel Hollandsworth, will Louise Hollandsworth to Roy Hill, as Harper won't be around to take care of her next year.

In testimony hereof, we herewith place our seal and signature as the Senior Class of Hillsboro High School.
